

Wir Jarl a TRUCKing fine fellow fae Felzie is at the WHEEL of a big LOAD tonight. He will have his LOG BOOK handy in case he's PICKED UP along the ROAD. He will not worry about ARTIC conditions should he take a DIVE fae his galley and get his SUIT WET. He will hope for someone to NURSE him better.

We bid you welcome een an aa tae wir '94 Up Helly Aa
 MARVIN dis year is da boss A fearsome viking none should cross
 CHARLIE KILPATRICK (Dat strappin cop) will play da night an for da hop
 So enjoy da squads da dance an crack an dan next night you'll aa come back.

This is da latest disco fling- Sets of three now ready to begin
 Grab the man in the centre by the feet drag him round and round to the disco beat
 Now one go left -The other go right, so the one in the middle has to stretch out wide
 Dan down the road and see the cop ending up in the court - thats the disco hop.

New MOTEL owners with NO LICENCE will find it NIPPING to have their past POURED OUT to the PUBLIC (BAR). They should not WhINE but keep up thier SPIRITS and take it on the GIN and WARD off all OBJECTIONS from BROWNE off NEIGHBOURS.

Noo PHILIP the builder he jumped in a foam
 When the ferry stopped running an he couldna win home
 He got on the wireless an spoke to the press
 And told his sad story of his night of distress
 Now when he gos on the ferry he aye books his trips and the old van we feat has now had her chips.

You've heard of flying saucers an U F O wi lights so bright
 But we hae flying FISHBOXES dat crash through windows ida night
 One little pig went to Cunnister Then that little pig got a mate
 Both little pigs would have had some fun If they'd had a roof over their head
 Now both little piggies are happy for DICKIE'S finially come to put up their shed.

Crofting days now all have changed even choppers now can be arranged
 Ta do up a hoose across da voe a helicopter sped to an fro
 But on da way back da crew didna look an doon ower da parks da grund hit shook
 O les ales whats happened noo he's gone an slippit wir grain o oo

Da disco finished all was well dan a nort boy he guid missin
 Some tought that he was in the bus havin fun an kissin
 A search was started dere an dan an round tae every eart
 But he was snug an cosy sleepin in da essie kert
 Dere were some it got da wind up it really wisna fine
 But da copper he cam on da scene an got him home in time

A new marina hit wis planned wi rocks an planks o wid a n sand
 Wi street lights hit was all aglow ta brighten da surroundings round da voe
 When Derek he fled in a stew says "Its goin ta ruin my view
 An I canna even sleep at nights for da brightness o da harbour lights

Peerie dog Peerie dog Where has du been?

Dey're been looking for days an dus never been seen

Peerie dog Peerie dog Why did do go?

I was faired wi da fireworks at North a Vee.

Bold skipper fae Unst peerie Jim

Maks sure his crew obeys him

Youll hae no long locks

Hangin doon tae your shocks

So Sawford a n Coutts had tae trim.
